2. TYPE AND DURATION OF STUDENTSHIPS

PhD studentship grants are intended to fund the research activities of the studentship holder, carried out to earn an academic doctoral degree at a Portuguese University.

Research activities leading to the doctoral degree will take place at the Research Unit, under the supervision of one of its integrated members. CAMGSD will be the host institution for the studentship holders, without prejudice to the work being carried out in collaboration with other institutions.

The research activities of the selected studentship holders must be included in the activity plan and strategy of the CAMGSD Research Unit, and carried out within the scope of the Doctoral Program in Mathematics of the Instituto Superior Técnico, Universidade de Lisboa.

The research work may proceed entirely (studentship in the country) or partially (mixed studentship) at a national institution.

As a rule, the duration of the PhD studentship is annual, renewable up to a maximum of four years (48 months), and a studentship cannot be granted for a period of less than 3 consecutive months.

In the case of a mixed studentship, the work period taking place at a foreign institution cannot exceed 24 months.

3. STUDENTSHIP RECIPIENTS

The PhD studentships are intended for applicants enrolled in the Doctoral Program in Mathematics at the Instituto Superior Técnico, or for applicants who satisfy the necessary requirements to enroll in the Doctoral Program, set out in point 2 of this Call Notice, and who intend to carry out research activities leading to a doctoral degree at the Center for Mathematical Analysis, Geometry and Dynamical Systems (CAMGSD) of Instituto Superior Técnico, Universidade de Lisboa, or at an associated host institution.

6. EVALUATION CRITERIA AND COMPENSATION

6.1 Evaluation Criteria

The evaluation process assesses the applicant's merit, curriculum and letter of motivation, and his/her performance at an eventual interview, conducted in English either in person or by videoconference.

Applications considered admissible will be evaluated according to a score from 0 to 5 (zero to five) in each of the following evaluation criteria:

- Criterion A – Applicant's Merit, with a weight of 40%;
  - Subcriterion A1 – Academic career, (reflecting the academic degree grades), with a weight of 80%, using tables 1 and 2 of section 5.1.1 (pages 7 and 9) of the Notice of the Call for PhD studentships – 2021, published in the FCT site:
https://www.fct.pt/apoios/bolsas/concursos/docs/Bolsas\_2021\_AvisoAberturaConcurso\_EN.pdf.

“Licenciado” or Master's degree in Mathematics or a related area;
- Criterion B – Curriculum, with a weight of 20%;
  - Subcriterion B1 – Detailed analysis of the Curriculum vitae, scientific publications and experience in the area of the Doctoral Program, with a weight of 80%
  - Subcriterion B2 –Reference Letters, with a weight of 20%
- Criterion C – Motivation Letter, with a weight of 20%
- Criterion D – Interview, either in person or by videoconference, conducted in English, with a weight of 20%, for the applicants whose intermediate classification is above three points. The intermediate classification is computed by the formula:

$$\textit{Intermediate Classification} = (0,5 \times A) + (0,25 \times B) + (0,25 \times C)$$

- For the final studentship award decision process, the applicants will be ranked according to the following weighted formula that takes into account the criteria A, B, C and D:

$$\textit{Final Classification} = (0,4 \times A) + (0,2 \times B) + (0,2 \times C) + (0,2 \times D)$$

In the event of a tie in the final rank, the order of the candidates will be determined on the basis of the classifications obtained in each of the evaluation criteria according to the following order of importance: criterium A, criterium B, criterium C and criterium D.

Important notice for applicants with degrees issued by foreign higher education institutions:

- Applicants with degrees issued by foreign higher education institutions can apply and will be assessed using the same criteria as applicants with diplomas issued by Portuguese institutions, provided they present, in their application, proof of recognition of academic degrees or request for automatic grade recognition and the conversion of the final grade to the Portuguese classification scale under the terms of the applicable legislation.
  - Applicants with foreign degrees who do not show proof of conversion of the final grade to the Portuguese classification scale will be awarded for the criterion A (subcriterion A1) the minimum classification of tables 1 and 2 of section 5.1.1 (pages 7 and 9) of the Notice of the Call for PhD studentships – 2021, published in the FCT site:
